

After touching a duck or chick Wash your hands

Stop the Spread of Salmonella

- Don't nuzzle or kiss chicks and ducklings.
- Keep chicks and ducklings out of the kitchen and family living areas.
- Don't use the kitchen sink to clean cages, feed or water containers.
- Call your health care provider if you think you have a Salmonella infection.

Contact your local health department or Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services for more information:
www.health.mo.gov or (866) 628-9891 Toll free
cdc.gov/healthypets/resources/salmonella-baby-poultry.pdf

Poster concept courtesy of the Washington State Departments of Agriculture and Health.